A rare treat just for two, luxury canal barge Amour is a private floating haven for leisurely and luxurious cruising in France. Once a freight-carrying vessel she's now beautifully converted to offer the ultimate in luxury cruising, plying the delightful Canal du Midi in southern France.

Nestled beneath shady trees, her shining woodwork and gleaming brass portholes steal the scene. Step aboard the marquised aft deck and you're immersed in the ambiance of a luxury motor yacht, its awning and snug settle providing a private area to relax and take in the sunny views.

Within, polished mahogany and Starbay furniture, Les Toiles du Soleil and Villa Nova fabrics feature throughout, blending with mellow creamy hues. Roof lights and sparkling mirrors capture the Mediterranean sunlight; blue skies and sunflower fields enchant the eye, and delectable cuisine and fine wines tempt and refresh the palette. To cruise with Amour is to live the legend of romantic travel.

Owner Adrien Bramoullé is one of the most creative operators on the Canal du Midi, and with Amour he has understood the need for truly private, scenic, and luxurious getaways. He delivers extraordinarily high levels of quality and professionalism for his guests aboard this French barge.
